

Where can we eat and drink while visiting Eastport off-season?

Updated Nov 15, 2021 Call ahead to confirm days/hours – off-season hours vary

DIY is always a great option for a Way DownEast experience:

- Erik Francis and Son at Pleasant Point Pier – fresh lobster, crab, clams, scallops.
Call: (207)214-6709 or (207)853-7122
- Maine-ly Smoked Salmon (South Meadow Rd. in Perry, daily 9am-5pm) Call: (207)853-4794
- Raye's Mustard at 54 Water St. (daily 11am-3pm) Everything tastes better with Raye's Mustard, the last remaining traditional stoneground mustard mill in North America. Call: (207)853-4451
- The Bazaar in Quoddy Village (Tues-Sat 11am-4pm) has a tasty selection of wine and artisan foods.
Call: (207)458-3185
- The IGA at 88 Washington St. is open daily 7am-7pm with a good selection of groceries, including a deli with rotisserie chickens, fresh sandwiches and pizza slices to enjoy at home or at a picnic.
Call: (207)853-4050

Eastport Bars and Restaurants (Water St - North to South):

- (D) Ole Hookers Bar 106 Water St. Open 6 days from 4-9pm-ish (closed Thurs) Full bar, daily home-cooked specials by Mary Beth. Take the neighborhood welcome of Cheers, mix in some Kentucky hospitality, move it all to Eastport and you have Ole Hookers!
